

Master of Arts in Teaching Social Studies Course Requirements

Prerequisites:

A course in psychology and fulfillment of social studies content requirements. Unfulfilled prerequisites will be listed on the student's official work program and are considered requirements for the degree.

I. Course work in professional education required for certification (17 sh)

CURR 599	Curricular and Social Dynamics of Schooling	3 sh
EDFD 520	Development of Educational Thought	3 sh
	A course in teaching reading	3 sh
CURR 5__	A course in teaching for critical thinking	3 sh
SOSC 401	Methods of Teaching Social Studies	3 sh
CURR 500	Fieldwork in Education	2 sh

The Fieldwork application must be filed with the Center of Pedagogy by October 1 for the spring semester and March 1 for the fall semester.

Professional Semester (12 sh)

CURR 511	Supervised Student Teaching	8 sh
CURR 502	Seminar in Professional Education	1 sh
CURR 528	Teaching for Learning	3 sh

II. Teaching Field Requirements (12 sh)

At least two graduate level courses in social science as noted on the student's official work program. Advanced Educational Psychology and a Human/Intercultural Relations course if not fulfilled elsewhere and must be taken before the professional semester.

III. Additional Courses in Professional Education (6 sh)

CURR 522	Innovations in Teaching	3 sh
ELRS 503	Methods of Research	3 sh

IV. Comprehensive Examination

Normal Minimum Semester Hours 47 sh